THINGS TO DO:

A visit to West Cork would not be complete without doing some or all of the following...You're spoilt for choice!

Beaches

West Cork's rugged coastline, tiny coves, golden sands and safe harbours offers a range of beaches that are popular with surfers, swimmers, wind-surfers and walkers. Many of our beaches are so secluded it is just you and the Atlantic Ocean. Here is a list of beaches on our doorstep,

Warren Beach:

A very safe sheltered beach to sunbathe and swim, suitable for families. Only 1km from Rosscarbery Causeway and the Celtic Ross Hotel.

Owenahincha Beach:

Blue Flag Beach. A short distance from Rosscarbery, this Blue Flag beach is a long sandy beach. As it is exposed it can get very windy and is a popular spot for surfing.

Long Strand: Looking out over Galley Head this beach is great to stretch the legs and breathe in the Atlantic air. Not suitable for swimming, a surfer's haven.

Red Strand: Not far from Long Strand this beach is dotted with rock pools.

WEST CORK FARM TOURS

Experience a West Cork Farm Tour and immerse yourself in a way of life that's connected to the people, seasons and landscapes of Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way.

Every Thursday 11am | Duration 2hrs | Wellingtons provided | Location sent via email upon booking
Book Online www.westcorkfarmtours.com

Drombeg Stone Circle

This is one of the most visited megalithic sites in Ireland and is protected under the National Monuments Act. Known locally as 'Druid's Altar' Drombeg is a Recumbent stone circle. Steeped in history, stone circles were places of ritual and ceremony in the later Bronze Age period (c. 1500 BC - 600 BC) and were usually associated with human burial. Also at the site is a fulacht fiadh or prehistoric cooking site and ruins of oval huts made from standing stones. A must see when in West Cork

Lagoon Activity Centre

Spend the afternoon at the Lagoon Activity Centre where you can go kayaking, paddle boating, stand up paddle boarding or windsurfing. Great fun for all the family!

Glenview Gardens & Hobbit House

Find the fairies in Glenview Gardens & Hobbit Houses! A beautiful 3 acre garden with amazing designs and fun for all the family. The kids will have a great time visiting the Hobbit House built right through the birch mound or searching for the fairy houses in the fairy woodland. View the Budgies, Parakeets, Finches, Ducks and Chickens in the Bird Aviary or explore the tropical gardens and wildflower meadow. A wonderful way to spend some time outdoors.

The West Cork Garden Trail

Make sure to visit some or all of The West Cork Garden Trail. Thanks to its temperate climate West Cork is a gardener's paradise. Plants that simply wouldn't survive outdoors in other parts of Ireland thrive here, leading to some refreshingly original combinations. The West Cork Garden Trail brings together a selection of the region's most eclectic, exciting and original gardens, and visiting at least some of them is a must if you're horticulturally inclined.

Opening times for gardens on the trail vary, but many, like Lisselan Gardens in Clonakilty, Bantry House and Gardens in Bantry, Ewe Sculpture Garden in Glengarriff, Garnish Island in Glengarriff and others are open through much of the year. You'll find a full list of gardens and opening times on the West Cork Garden Trail website: www.westcorkgardentrail.com

Whale Watching

At once both exhilarating and humbling, a whale encounter is one of those few experiences in life that truly defies adequate description. Words can never really do it justice... it's something you have to feel for yourself.

It's why people routinely travel across the globe in search of that special whale experience. But did you know your stay at the Celtic Ross Hotel puts you within a stone's throw of some of the best whale watching in Europe?

West Cork offers world-class whale watching, with humpback whales, fin whales and minke whales visiting these shores regularly, along with common dolphins, basking sharks, grey seals and more.

We've teamed up with Ireland's most experienced skipper, Adrian Nowotynski of Carbery Boat Tours, to help you realise your whale-watching ambitions. For tour times and bookings take a look at the Carbery Boat Tours website, or call the team on 00 353 86 3850568.

Michael Collins House

One of Ireland's greatest military and political leaders lived 6km west of Clonakilty during the early 1990's. Take a trip to the Michael Collins House at Emmet Square, Clonakilty. Enjoy family friendly guided tours and audio-visual presentations around his life, suitable for all ages and levels of interest. Open 10am to 5pm, Tuesday to Saturday. Children's ticket just €2

Model Railway Village

The Model Railway Village for a fun and memorable day out. Walking into the model village, you step back in time and see life as it was in the 1940's. See the old West Cork railway line portrayed in delightful miniature. The road train tours the town and surrounding areas of Clonakilty and a few waves from the locals are always guaranteed!

PH: (023) 8833224 www.modalvillage.ie

Inchydoney Surf School

Inchydoney Surf School is situated on the blue flag beach of Inchydoney. The school runs lessons all year round and surf camps during the summer. Whether you are a novice or well used to riding the waves, you are guaranteed an experience not be missed. All equipment is provided including, wetsuits, surfboards and boots.

PH: 086 8695396 www.inchydoneysurfschool.com

Wildlife Tours

Rosscarbery, a haven for wildlife watchers, offering an astonishing diversity of wildlife habitats literally within a short walk of the hotel. You have tidal pools, estuary mud-flats, the lagoon, dunes, saltmarsh, sandy beach, inlet, bay and cliffs that provide homes for an incredible variety of plants and animals.

It's easy to enjoy Rosscarbery's wildlife on your own but if you'd prefer a bit of local guidance we have teamed up with Calvin Jones, owner of Ireland's Wildlife, to offer you a selection of guided Discover Wildlife Experiences direct from your hotel.

Contact Calvin on info@irelandswildlife.com, call +353 86 8233709 or visit the Ireland's Wildlife website www.irelandswildlife.com to arrange your perfect West Cork Wildlife experience.

Golf

Need to brush up your technique? You can practice your swing before you hit the course at Rosscarbery Driving Range. Just around the corner from the hotel, the range is open daily PH (023) 8848188

Local Golf Courses:

Skibbereen & West Carbery Golf Club is located 3km from Skibbereen Town. The course is an open 18-hole parkland course set against the backdrop of Lough Hyne, Ireland's first marine nature reserve, the beautiful sailing and fishing village of Baltimore and its surrounding islands. Club. PH: (028) 21227 www.skibbgolf.com

Clonakilty Golf Club is one is one of the most challenging and picturesque of Irish golf courses. A parkland course, it has nine-holes set on 80 acres surrounded by mature woodland and with the Arigideen River flowing through it. Each hole can be played twice, with two sets of tees at each hole; Lisselan is a gem among Irish golf courses.

Kayaking

Kayaking is a fantastic activity for individuals and families, and we've partnered with one of Ireland's leading kayaking instructors, Jim Kennedy of Atlantic Sea Kayaking, to offer a range of trips to suit everyone from beginner to expert.

These include the popular and magical Moonlight/Starlight Kayaking adventure, Dawn and Evening Chorus Kayaking as well as Marine Safaris and the Secrets of Seaweed, where you'll learn to recognise various seaweeds, taste the edible ones and learn about the wonderful and many positive attributes of Seaweed. It's a must for all foragers out there.

Half Day and Full Day kayaking packages are available, along with many other options - you'll find more information on the Atlantic Sea Kayaking website
